2. Award Criteria

To be eligible for the PTPL Scholarship, applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

- be a full or part-time student in an ALA-accredited Library and/or Information Science program at the Master's level at the time of the award and have completed at least one three-hour credit course
- demonstrate an interest in library technical services through employment, course of study, or research interests. Technical services work centers on the "…acquisition, identification, cataloging, classification, and preservation of all kinds of library materials
- be employed or living in the PTPL membership region (Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia).

Scholarship recipients receive $2,000 toward their educational expenses, a free one-year membership in PTPL and have registration fees for the annual conference waived. For full scholarship details, visit http://www.potomactechlibrarians.org/scholar.

3. Submission Information

Applicants must submit the following information prior to the submission deadline to be considered for the PTPL Scholarship:

1. PTPL Scholarship Application (this document, with the form completed)
2. Two written references (see below for details)
3. Current resume
4. One page, double spaced statement of the applicant's interest in library technical services

References are accepted from two faculty members OR one faculty member and your current supervisor. References should be able to address your potential or experience in library technical services. Letters may be emailed directly from the faculty member or your supervisor to Leigh Ann Martin at lbrosnih@richmond.edu.

Incomplete application packets and those received after the application deadline will not be considered.

Please submit all materials in Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), plain text (.txt), or PDF (.pdf) format to Leigh Ann Martin at lbrosnih@richmond.edu. ALL APPLICATION PACKETS MUST BE RECEIVED NO LATER THAN APRIL 26, 2024 AT 11:59 PM EDT.
